2012 Mission Trips to Costa Rica

~February, 2012 for adults~

~July, 2012 for youth~

CRMP Mission Team – La Bonita de Changuena

Plan to be in La Bonita de Changuena in early 2012 to build a parsonage for Humberto and Lili. They consistently have 40 or more people coming for worship! Some walk for over an hour to get there.

As the church continues to grow, Humberto and Lili will move in 2012 to La Bonita to pastor that church full time. I started working with them in Santa Lucia 5 years ago and have been blessed to be a part of the growth of their ministry in Changuena.

In 2012 I will be leading an adult mission team to Costa Rica in February and co-leading a youth mission team with Katherine to Costa Rica in July.

Plan to join us as we introduce more members of NUMC to our friends in Costa Rica. If you missed the informational meeting on the adult mission trip between services on Sunday, June 26th, please contact me ASAP at 818-652-0385 or measterly@socal.rr.com.
